

YOUTH BROADCAST EXPERIENCE

Get ready to be part of the most exciting global youth sporting event!

The Youth Olympic Games is a multi-sport event for young athletes, which celebrates sports and international friendship. The upcoming edition of the Youth Olympic Games will be in Gangwon in January 2024, and you have a chance to be a part of it!

Olympic Broadcasting Services (OBS), the organisation responsible for bringing the magic of the Games to screens worldwide, is looking for students interested in sports, broadcasting or event management to join their team. This is a unique chance to participate in the Winter Youth Olympic Games Gangwon 2024 as part of the media crew!

Imagine learning from the best in the industry, gaining hands-on experience, and working alongside professionals who make the Olympic Games come alive on television. As part of the Youth Broadcast Experience programme, you'll have the opportunity to get a paid job delivering this global spectacle viewers worldwide.

Apply now and mark your calendars for January 2024!

Jobs Available

Camera Assistant

- Assist camera operator in setting-up cameras
- Protect camera operator and their shots
- Manage camera cables

Crew Assistant/ENG News Assistant

- Will be assigned to a producer and camera operator.
- Assist in preparation and planning, conducting research and sourcing information
- Help in originating ideas for stories
- Assist with arranging transportation

YOUTH BROADCAST EXPERIENCE

Production Assistant

- Assist with organisation, booking appointments of athletes and guests
- Assist in ideas for stories
- Conduct research on athletes, sports, etc.
- Assist with general office management tasks (forms, expenses reports, etc.)
- Assist with translation

Assistant: Athletes Point of View (APOV)

- Check-out video equipment to athletes
- Assist athletes in learning how to use the cameras
- Work with the athletes to edit their video stories on Adobe Premiere

OBS Assistant

- Assist with office support in in different areas which could be Finance, Human Resources, and Broadcast Operations Centre.
- Provide support wherever it is needed and help ensure the smooth running of the operation.

Runner

- Services include the areas of transportation, food, uniforms, lodging, and general venue needs.
- Runs errands for logistics personnel

